Holiday PowerSaving Checklist

The holidays are here and that means holiday decorations and lights, many of which use electricity. To help your family save energy and money while keeping things festive, complete this checklist every night before you go to bed!

Heading out of town for the holidays or simply going out of the house or to bed at night? Make sure you complete this checklist before you leave. Or, if you have family or friends coming to stay with you, send this checklist to them as a holiday gift so that they can save some money while they're traveling!
